

Diana D. Schultz, MS_ED, PCC

“DD” Has a bachelor’s degree in psychology from the University of Dayton (1997) and a master’s degree in community counseling, also from the University of Dayton (2002). She is a licensed professional clinical counselor in the state of Ohio. She has worked at Grandview Hospital in the past in their StressCare/Bridges program, which is no longer in existence. The Stress Care program was for individuals, Intensive outpatient, and partial hospitalization mental health counseling, as well as a drug and alcohol program and dual diagnosis program. The Bridges program was an intensive outpatient program for severely mentally disabled people with chronic and disabling mental health issues who sometimes also have learning across all aspects of the programs, doing assessments, individual counseling, and some of the group counseling sessions. She also has done step down assessments from the inpatient units to these programs. DD has been with Wellness Card LLC Since October 2003. She currently sees primarily individual adults and occasionally older adolescents, and will see couples and families as parts of the treatment for the individual. She is quite happy to discuss spiritual matters as well as the other issues individuals may bring to counseling.
